Infertility Beaten by Chinese Medicine

Dr. Lily Hua Yu (centre picture), with her special techniques in Chinese medicine and a unique passion, has been successfully treating hundreds of people with infertility problems.

Dr. Lily Hua Yu, Fellow of Chinese Medical Institute & Register (CMIR) Consultant in Chinese Medicine & Acupuncture of AcuMedic Centre is an incredibly successful Chinese doctor in the advancement of infertility treatment over the past 30 years. The success rates have been more than twice the national average, including people who have failed at IVF treatment.

Since successfully treating Princess Diana as constantly reported by Daily Mail and The Mirror, Dr. Lily Hua Yu has gained a prestigious reputation in her treatment of many diseases, especially in Infertility.

Without pain, without much cost, without operations, and without any side-effects, using only Chinese herbs & acupuncture, she has succeeded in helping many couples to start a healthy family.
